Happy Holidays Eagle Scout!

What a fantastic year for Scouting! We hope you are having a great year, and are enjoying a safe and joyous Holiday Season with friends and family!

I would like to update you on a few exciting new developments for Eagle Scouts, and to share with you how we are celebrating our 2011 Class of Eagle Scouts, and how you can help current life Scouts become Eagles!

First off, our event chairman, Eagle Scout Ryan Cook, is proud to share that the 2012 Building Character Celebration to honor our 2011 Class of Eagle Scouts is going to be held March 26, 2012 featuring special guest speaker Governor Rick Snyder! Please save the date now and plan on attending to celebrate Eagle Scouts! (a save the date card is attached)

2012 is the “Year of the Eagle Scout”!! Our coveted rank celebrates its 100th Birthday! Look for more exciting celebration news coming throughout the year!

We are also very excited to share with you today an exciting NEW program of our Council to match new life Scouts with current Eagle Scouts who will mentor them to their Eagle Scout Rankthat’s where you come in!

We are asking you to sign up NOW to our list of Eagle Scout Mentors,

In brief, here is how the program works:

1. Eagle Scouts reply to this email or email grfc@grfccouncilbsa.org with subject line “Eagle Mentor” their name, address, email, phone number, and Eagle Class year with your Troop Number/City/State. Once we receive the email from you, your name is placed on the Eagle Mentor Listing.
2. Next you will be invited to the “Eagle Mentor Training Session” which will get you up to speed on your role in mentoring a Life Scout, go over all the current Eagle Scout requirements and info you will need to know to help your Life Scout.
3. Once trained, you will be assigned a Life Scout (or more!) to mentor. You will assist that Life Scout all the way to his Eagle Court of Honor!

SIGN UP TODAY BY EMAIL!

Our first Eagle Mentor Training is coming early in 2012, so we encourage you to email us today to join the list! As a special holiday gift, any Eagle Scout that joins the list to be a mentor by January 1, 2012 will receive a very special holiday gift!

Please contact Council Program Director Aaron Gach at aaron.gach@scouting.org with any questions.

In the spirit of Eagle Scouting,

David
